Missional Vitality

Our Missional Vitality describes the way we seek to serve our communities. The bar graph shows a wide variety of ministries to reach those around us. A significant focus remains on the Next Generation.

Leadership Discernment

The state of the church has declined from 9% in 2017 to 8% Thriving and remained at 55% Growing in 2018, bringing the number of churches who plateaued up from 27% in 2017 to 28% in 2018. Those churches who reported being moderately effective in reaching their community with the gospel remained at 66% in 2018, while churches who reported being very effective remained steady at 8% in 2018.

Make-up of the Local Church

Churches are made up of many dynamics. The 2018 ACLR asked whether churches are: multi-generational, multi-cultural, reflecting the community in demographics, aging, growing younger, or any combination of those.

Other Vitality Indicators

The number of churches who reported that they are currently involved in a revitalization process changed from 48% in 2017 to 44% in 2018. Churches who are planning a revitalization process in the future remained steady at 27%. In 2018, 167 churches sent out missions teams within Canada and 267 churches sent out short-term missions teams globally.

Leadership Development

The majority of our Lead Pastors who completed the 2018 ACLR are developing their leadership skills through reading books. Over 2/3 attended a General or District Conference in 2018. Just over half of respondents use online learning or resources to continue their leadership development while almost 1/4 are continuing their education through College or Seminary courses.

Number of conversions reported 2008—2018

How churches describe the disciple-making process:

Questions asked on the ACLR:

1. People are struggling in their knowledge and application of the Bible.
2. People are growing deeper in their knowledge but struggling with their application.
3. People are growing deeper in their knowledge and application of the Bible.
4. People are growing deeper and it is resulting in the disciples of the church making new disciples themselves.

1187 DM Communities by Language at October 28, 2019

On any given Sunday, churches in Canada are meeting in 49 different languages.

A disciple-making community is defined as:
 "A Christ-centered gathering of people, with the support of leadership, meeting regularly for worship, caring, teaching, praying, and actively engaging in mission with the intention of continuing to meet for these purposes indefinitely."
